

Statement on Conflict Minerals

Section 1502 of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act requires SEC-reporting companies to disclose their use of conflict minerals cassiterite, coltan, wolframite and gold or their derivatives tin, tantalum and tungsten sourced from the conflict regions of the Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC) or adjoining countries. Also, Regulation (EU) 2017/821 requires EU importers of conflict minerals or their derivatives to make available to their immediate downstream purchasers all information gained and maintained pursuant to their supply chain due diligence with due regard for business confidentiality and other competitive concerns.

Covestro Deutschland AG and its affiliates have established a process of due diligence in their supply chain to assess products and raw materials for conflict minerals. This process includes reasonable country of origin inquiries to suppliers of raw materials.

Based on the information obtained from this process, we conclude that all products of Covestro Deutschland AG and its affiliates are free of conflict materials as defined by the SEC Conflict Minerals Final Rule (Release No. 34-67716; File No. S7-40-10; Date: 2012-08-22) and as defined by Regulation (EU) 2017/821.
